We can't begin to tell you the countless number of applications we have gone through, from across the country. Nevertheless, you, were among those chosen few! From Designers Enthusiasts to Photographers, we have had some of the most diverse, daring and dexterous youngsters become a part of this batch. The impact you are going to have as a collective is unparalleled to anything you've experienced before and we wish for this program to help you maximize that potential and truly grow as an Snapchat Opinion Leader.

It's clear from your application that you are a person who lives for a challenge, for excellence, & for making your presence count. We look forward to what is still to come.
